ABOUT DI GASN TRIO

Di Gasn Trio is one of the leading voices of the new generation of klezmer music, blending the emotional depth of Jewish musical tradition with the fire and virtuosity of the Balkans.

Founded in Jerusalem in 2012 by accordionist Yanush Hurwitz and clarinetist-vocalist Gal Klein, the ensemble creates original music rooted in centuries-old traditions while speaking a distinctly contemporary musical language. Their concerts move naturally from intimate, heartfelt melodies to irresistible dance tunes, inviting audiences across cultures to become part of the celebration.

The ensemble has represented Israel and the Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs at major festivals and concert halls across Europe and Asia, including the National Centre for the Performing Arts in Beijing, Expo Astana (Kazakhstan), the International Klezmer Festival Fürth (Germany), and the first Klezmer Festival of Kazakhstan.

Di Gasn Trio has released three albums, is currently working on a fourth, and reaches a growing international audience with more than 7,000 monthly listeners on Spotify.

Their performances have been praised for combining exceptional musicianship, authenticity and infectious stage energy.

"The perfect combination of musical excellence, warmth, and entertainment."
